1. [redacted] met with Jim Kendall and General Shaw to review further a proposed report appropriately marked for public issuance. [redacted] and John Warner were present from the Agency; Colonel Dillender of DOD (I&L) and [redacted] DIA were present. Basically there were no problems with those changes which had been proposed and were desired by CIA although there are still several reserved points by Shaw and Kendall on the DOD side. It was indicated it was hoped to have this report released within the next few days. The points reserved by DOD will be taken up by Kendall with the Subcommittee chairman.

2. [redacted] Russell Fee delivered a letter from Senator Stennis to Mr. McCone informing him of the start of the hearings on the nuclear test ban treaty negotiations and requesting the Director's availability some time during the week of 20 May. In addition, he advised that Senator Stennis had agreed to permit one observer from CIA to sit through all of the hearings. Mr. Sheldon was advised and stated he would make arrangements for the observer from the Agency.

3. [redacted] Mr. Russell A. Rourke, Administrative Assistant to Congressman John R. Pillion (R., N.Y.) called and requested that I attend a meeting in the Congressman's office at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday morning on the Haitian situation. Stated I would be glad to come but that I was not completely up-to-date on happenings in Haiti. After consultation with Mr. Pillion, Mr. Rourke requested that if possible, an Agency representative familiar with current happenings in Haiti meet with the Congressman during Tuesday morning. Advised that I would relay the request but indicated that I could not be hopeful that we would be able to provide a representative. The current happenings in Haiti relate to political and policy determinations that are outside responsibility of this Agency.
